

MONO-POLY – LIVESET TECHNICAL AND HOSPITALITY RIDER INFORMATION

Dennis Verschoor is an Dutch electronic musician specialized in modular synthesis.

Nowadays i'm running a modular event in the Netherlands called "Noodlebar"
 This is the spot to play modular synthesizers and we got artists all over the world coming over.

I've done a lecture at the Dutch Film Festival about modular synthesis and collecting stuff.

Played at festivals like Freerotation and did stuff for Intergalacticfm.

I got releases on Doppelganger records, Strange Life Records and more...

I've gigged in various places like: Amsterdam, Brussel, Berlin, Oxford, Manchester, Estonia, Myanmar, Chengdu.

PREVIEW

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?t=1567&v=rmr7yFOYwNk>

LINKS

<http://www.mono-poly.nl>

<https://www.facebook.com/dennis.verschoor>

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

1 x High quality professional 12 channel PA mixer - 2 aux output - preferably Soundcraft / Allen & Heath (other options please contact)

2 x High quality professional monitor speakers, positioned left and right of the artist, and controllable via the PA mixer on stage

4 x European Power sockets (220<-240 Volt)

1 x Solid shockproof table/riser (minimum 1x2x1m) with sufficient space for all equipment

SOUNDCHECK

- The artist needs 30 minutes for setting up the gear
- The sound check will take 20 minutes
- Both the monitor speakers and PA system have to be in use for the soundcheck
- At least one qualified engineer with knowledge of the actual sound system must be present during soundcheck and performance

HOSPITALITY REQUIREMENTS

- A live-set of minimum 50 minutes
- 1 piece of luggage (20kg) to check in and 1 piece of hand luggage per artist
- A healthy meal buy-out per artist
- Backstage at the venue
- Some cooled drinks backstage and on stage (water, beers, soft drinks)
- Hotel or equivalent: comfortable room with Wi-Fi
- Please try to arrange accommodation as close to the venue as possible

2

CONTACT

Dennis Verchoor
 Rotterdam - Netherlands
 +310 624131379 (NL)
 modular@gmail.com